Upon reflection, I recognize that there has been many meetings and activities, while also recognizing that there is still more work to be done in advancing the Labor Movements. The events and activities I have participated in help us all in supporting our collective efforts towards mobilization, social justice, community engagement, political action, and contributing effectively to regional committees and educational conferences. I remain committed to fostering increased activism and continually enhance my abilities to serve as a strong advocate for our members. I look forward to continuing to engage with members face to face, strengthening our connections and solidarity. I am grateful for the meaningful relationships and friendships formed along the way and am dedicated to representing and advancing the interests of our union with steadfast commitment.

Thank you,

Natasha Mercer
